COCKTAILS

Cuba Libre 12

It's Havana club rum with classic Coke and lime! Originally created to celebrate Cuba's independence in the early 20th Century, now it's the most consumed cocktail in the world!

1.5oz Havana Club Rum & Classic Coke

Gin & Tonic 12

Created by the British Army in India, this stone-cold classic features an aromatic gin and award-winning tonic with botanical extracts

1.5oz locally distilled Arbutus Empiric & Fevertree Tonic

Sangria Roja 12

A light and refreshing cocktail that became popular in America after the 1964 world's fair and remains popular in a more traditional form in Spain. Red wine, brandy, citrus, and apple muddled together and topped with soda. Served over ice.

5oz Tempranillo, 1.5oz Brandy

Bourbon Old Fashioned 14

Kentucky Bourbon with bitters and orange over ice. A classic and a favourite!

2oz Bulleit Bourbon, magic

Negroni 12

Originating in Florence in 1919, this aperitif is bitter, a little sweet and a stunning shade of pink.

1oz Gin, 1oz Campari & 1oz sweet Vermouth.

Aperol Spritz 12

A light and refreshing cocktail that became popular in Venice around 1950. Served with a slice of orange.

3oz Villa Teresa Prosecco, 1.5oz Aperol & a splash of soda.
